Notwithstanding the $5,000 per annum he collected to do the work himself, Meyenborg in this instance called Willlam C. Dewitt to his assistance. Mr. De Witt fought the battle for the County and put in his little hill for $29,000, after the bank had been ordered by the courts to take the bonds.

Meyerborg could not let a good thing go by, so he filed a bill for 10,000 for extras in the same case.

Last June the courts cut down Mr. Dewitt's bill to $14,000, and allowed Meyenborg $2,700.38. Mr. Harrington said this morning that the judgment had never been filed, nor had Meyerborg asked for his money since June until to-lay. He said that as soon as County Treasurer Adams returned, the matter would be investigated, and if it was found that Mr. Adams must pay the bill, he would do so.

No one around the Court-House could see how it was that the matter had been placed in the sheriff's hands unless it was to give Sheriff Buttling a chance to mulct the County of his fees.

Flirt's race yesterday was outrageously bad. After the race it leaked out that she had run away three miles on Sunday. Mr. Dwyer knew this, but the public didn't. They bet their good money, but Mr. Dwyer-well, how could he? The poor public didn't know, you know.

Frank Burridge, the owner of Terrapin, I is much worked up over the fact that the Stewards at Jerome Park intimated that he had been guilty of fraud. On Saturday Terrapin beat the 1 to 6 favorite, Arab. The latter could not raise a decent gailop. Why was not George Forbes questioned instead of Mr. Burridge. Terrapin had been badly ridden in his fast few races, but showed steady simprovement, and had a better boy up on Saturday.

Harry Jones rode a most amazing race on Black Hawk yesterday, but Sims's work on Ferrier was not much better. In the race they finished in a dead heat through Sims's carelessness, but in the run-off Jones took a very comfortable nap and Ferrier won. Jones did not raise a hand to the black colt in the stretch and watched Ferrier pass him with a look that plainly said: "Go on; I won't worry you."

Mike Bergen's riding on Stonenellie was a treat; in fact, it was the best race he ever rode. After the race Mike came within an ace of making victory complete by wailoping Sims. The latter accused Bergen of crowding him, and smashel Mike in the face. Mike started in to teach Sims a lesson, but friends interfered. Sims was fined $100 for hitting Bergen.

Starter Pettingill was a visitor at Sar-atoga yesterday. It is his first visit to Saratoga for some time, and he com-mented favorably on the improvement worked in the course. Mr. Pettingill will handle the flag at Latonia's Fall

Riley is not likely to start in any of the jumping races at Saratoga. He went lame in his work yesterday.

John Croker has sold Wang and Jennie T. to the Trojan Stable. They will be raced at Parkville. . . .

It is strange that Willie Martin should ever have been accused of pulling a dog like Hawthorne. This fellow would hardly earn his oats at a plough. Galilee appears to have regained his form. Six furiongs in 1.14, galloping, is Sporting Extra of The Evening

"Soup" Perkins's cup of happiness was full at Saratoga yesterday. He rode the first four winners, and a $5 bill parleyed on his mounts would have netted in the neighborhood of $2,000. "Soup" is probably the best boy of his weight now riding, not excepting even Griffin, of whom Easterners are so fond. He has judgment and skill rare in a boy of his age and weight.
